Acrostic Poems
Acrostic poems are simple poems in which each the first letter of each line forms a word or phrase (vertically). An acrostic poem can describe the subject or even tell a brief story about it. This type of poem is one of the simplest for a student to write because it gives the child a concrete format to use.

Endangered Species by Dan Beachy

poem About this Poem “Most immediately, ‘Endangered Species’ responds to the gradual disappearance of a number of butterfly species, most notably the monarch. But in more abstract ways, the poem tries to work within that oldest sense of reciprocity, wherein what damage occurs in the world, also occurs within those considering it,...

Endangered Animals Poems by Seigelman Class ...

They are endangered just like their relation - the manatee. The Wood Stork By Brendan, Ryan and Alex. With a black head and a white body. It has big feet, a big beak and it's tall. It has a sharp beak and a short tail. It eats fish, insects and frogs. It lives in swamps. It has lots of feathers, more than a crow. If you save it, You'll be a hero.

extinction poem

Extinction Poem. Over-hunting or pollution, Cutting woods for wood, Are threatening some species, It's never really good... Endangered species are at risk, To go and disappear, Protecting them is pretty cool, I think that's pretty clear... So let's protect the pristine places, Living things call home, Preventing any more extinctions, Let all species roam!
